Surrogate Landscape

Antoine Predock

1 Tempio di Apollo Tectonic collision: the theater of Marcellus, the portico of Octavius and the Temple of Apollo exist in controlled disarray. Engine noises and dead Vespas add to the accreting landscape.

2 Basilica di Massenzio The feeling of occupying a designated vantage point from which to draw the diorama of an inner surrogate landscape.

3

3 Foro Romano The architectural topography blurs the sense of original geologic datum, and is no longer viewed with the impulse toward mental reconstruction.

4 Colosseo, Roma Colosseum as urban time machine, its eroding silhouette in dialog with Celimontana.
