The Interdisciplinary Journal of Place-based Conservation
Volume 36, Number 2 • 2020

Co-published by the Institute for Parks, People, and Biodiversity, University of California, Berkeley and the George Wright Society.

Parks Stewardship Forum explores innovative thinking and offers enduring perspectives on critical issues of place-based heritage management and stewardship. Interdisciplinary in nature, the journal gathers insights from all fields related to parks, protected areas, cultural sites, and other place-based forms of conservation. The scope of the journal is international and dedicated to the legacy of George Meléndez Wright, a graduate of UC Berkeley and pioneer in conservation of national parks.

Parks Stewardship Forum continues The George Wright Forum, published 1981–2018 by the George Wright Society.

Parks Stewardship Forum is designed by Laurie Frasier • lauriefrasier.com

This issue is dedicated to the decades of conservation teaching, writing and advocacy by Dr. John Freemuth, who passed away in May at age 69. He was a trusted, non-partisan, scientifically sound voice in the complex debate around the future of our national parks and public lands.
